Matthew 25:1-13

News Reader:

Good evening Aimee Burtenshaw here with an exclusive report

I am standing outside the door of the most talked about wedding feast of the year. Tonight 5 luck wise girls made it into the banquet with the bridegroom.

With me I have on of the 5 girls who didn't get through the door. Tell me what happened?

Foolish Girl:

I can't believe it, I just didn't have enough oil. We didn't think it would take that long. None of the other 5 girls would give us any oil.

News Reader:

Your lamp appears to be burning now

Foolish Girl:

Yes we left to get more oil, we figured if he hadn't come yet he would still be a while. We were wrong; by the time we returned he was already inside with the other girls and we had been locked out.

News Reader:

Well there you have it folks, 5 very foolish girls who were not prepared. All I have to say is be careful for "you never know the day or the hour".
